

U.S. Representative José E. Serrano,
Fifteenth Congressional District of New York and The Institute for Family Health cordially invite you to:

Transforming Primary Care for the 21st Century

Tuesday, September 13th, 2016
12:30PM – 2PM

Rayburn House Office Building B-369
Lunch will be provided

Opening Remarks

Dr. Neil Calman, President & CEO, The Institute for Family Health

U.S Representative José E. Serrano, Fifteenth Congressional District of New York

Dr. Luis Padilla, Associate Administrator for Health Workforce & Director of the National Health Service Corps, Health Resources and Services Administration

Dr. Nathaniel Stinson, Director of Division of Scientific Programs, National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities

Presentations

Health Equity

Dr. Neil Calman, President & CEO

Community Engagement & Population Health

Ms. Charmaine Ruddock, Director of Bronx Health REACH

Behavioral Health and Primary Care Integration & Opioid Dependency

Dr. Abigail Herron, Director of Psychiatry

Health Professionals Training

Dr. Robert Schiller, Sr. VP of Clinical Affairs & Chief Medical Officer

Dr. Aimee Mankodi, Primary Care Physician & Graduate of the Institute's Residency Program

Award Ceremony

Awards will be presented to U.S. Representatives Joseph Crowley, Christopher Gibson, Hakeem Jeffries, Carolyn Maloney, Jerrold Nadler, Charles Rangel, José E. Serrano, and Nydia M. Velazquez for their support of the Institute for Family Health.

Kindly RSVP to Diana Batista, dbatista@institute.org